

Form 1095-B Basics

1. What is the Form 1095-B?

Form 1095-B is an IRS document that shows the consumer had health coverage considered Minimum Essential Coverage during the last tax year. As part of the Affordable Care Act, the IRS requires most people to get health coverage that meets this requirement for the given tax year. This is called the “individual mandate.” If you do not have health coverage that meets the requirement, you may have to pay a tax penalty for being “uninsured.” If you are required to file taxes, you may self-attest your coverage. It is important that you keep this form for your record as it contains proof of health coverage for the tax year, however, you are not required to submit a copy of the Form 1095-B with your tax return.

2. What information will be included on Form 1095-B?

The Form 1095-B will include the insured person's:

- Name
- Address
- Social Security number (or date of birth, if not available)
- Months of Medi-Cal that meets Minimum Essential Coverage requirements

3. Are there any other types of 1095 IRS tax forms?

Yes. There are other IRS tax forms that are similar to Form 1095-B and you might get more than one type if you had other health coverage:

- Form 1095-A – If a household member gets or had health coverage through Covered California.
- Form 1095-B – If a household member gets or had health coverage through a government sponsor, like Medicaid (Medi-Cal), Medicare, or Veterans benefits. Households may receive more than one Form 1095-B for each type of coverage.
- Form 1095-C – If a household member was offered health insurance through a large employer. (Small employers are not required to send forms.)

Who Gets a Form 1095-B

4. Who in my household will receive Form 1095-B?

Each person who is or was enrolled in Medi-Cal that met the coverage requirement, at any time during 2015, will get his or her own Form 1095-B. Therefore, a household with more than one person covered by Medi-Cal may get a Form 1095-B for each person that had coverage.

Also, anyone in the household who was covered by Medicare and Medi-Cal will get a Form 1095-B for each type of coverage they had.

5. Will there be people in my household who have Medi-Cal but will not get Form 1095-B?

People who are enrolled in a Medi-Cal program that is not considered “minimum essential coverage,” such as restricted scope Medi-Cal benefits (also known as “emergency Medi-Cal”), Medi-Cal with a Share of Cost, or certain limited coverage programs, will not get a Form 1095-B.

6. How do I know if the Medi-Cal coverage I am getting or that I had counts as minimum essential coverage?

Full-scope Medi-Cal coverage meets the coverage requirement. Nearly all people enrolled in the Medi-Cal program have full coverage, including those in pregnancy programs. The list below provides a few examples of Medi-Cal or state funded programs that do not meet the requirement:

- Medi-Cal with a Share of Cost
- Restricted Medi-Cal, covering only emergency services (sometimes called “emergency” Medi-Cal)
- Family Planning, Access, Care, and Treatment (FPACT)
- Special Treatment Programs such as treatment for Tuberculosis, Dialysis, and Parenteral Hyper-alimentation

For more information on your Medi-Cal coverage, contact your eligibility worker.

7. If I am required to have a Form 1095-B, how will I get it?

The 1095-B form will be mailed to you by March 31, 2016. A cover letter will be included to describe the form’s purpose. We highly recommend that you ensure your contact information, such as the mailing address, is up-to-date by reporting changes to your county human services agency.

8. What if I only had Medi-Cal for part of the year, will I still get Form 1095-B?

Yes, DHCS is mandated to report all months of Medi-Cal coverage meeting MEC requirements to the IRS and will furnish a 1095-B form to the individual for tax purposes, regardless of full or partial coverage through the tax year. The form shows which months you had coverage.

9. What will happen if I had Medi-Cal for part of the year and then I purchased a Covered California health insurance plan?

You will get a Form 1095-B from Medi-Cal that will provide proof of insurance for the months you were covered by Medi-Cal and you will get a Form 1095-A from Covered California that will provide proof of insurance for the months of coverage they provided.

10. Some people in my home have Covered California and others have Medi-Cal, will the IRS Form 1095-B show my household members who are not enrolled in the Medi-Cal program?

No. Medi-Cal will report each person's months of coverage to the IRS separately and will send that person their own Form 1095-B. You will receive Form 1095-B for each person in your family enrolled in Medi-Cal. If you have family members enrolled in Covered California, they should expect to receive Form 1095-A.

11. I'm a non-citizen but lawfully present in the United States and enrolled in Medi-Cal, will I still get an IRS Form 1095-B?

Yes, lawfully present people (non-citizens) who are enrolled in health care coverage through Medi-Cal will get an IRS Form 1095-B.

What to Do With Your Form 1095-B

15. What do I need to do with my Form 1095-B?

Form 1095-B is used as proof of minimum essential coverage. It should be kept for personal record in the event the IRS may require someone who has filed their taxes to provide it as proof of their coverage. Please remember, Form 1095-B is not required to file your taxes and you may self-attest your coverage without it.

16. Why does Medi-Cal/DHCS send Form 1095-B to the IRS too?

Medi-Cal sends Form 1095-B to the IRS to validate months of health insurance reported by the person filing their taxes and to prevent a tax penalty.

17. Why did I get more than one Form 1095-B from Medi-Cal and what should I do with all of them?

Medi-Cal will mail a Form 1095-B for every person with health insurance that meets minimum essential coverage during the tax year 2015. If you received another Form 1095-B for a person not living at your address, please call our Medi-Cal 1095-B helpdesk at 1-844-253-0883 and a call representative will be able to help you.

Individual Mandate and Tax Penalty

24. What will happen if I only had health coverage for part of the year?

If you had health coverage for only part of the year you may get a tax penalty if you don't meet one of the exceptions. Please refer to www.irs.gov/ACA for more details on the individual mandate for health insurance and rules that apply to gaps in coverage, including information about getting an exemption from the penalty.

25. What is a tax penalty?

You may have to pay a tax penalty if you do not have qualifying health care insurance (referred to as Minimum Essential Coverage and you do not apply for and receive an exemption. See question #1 to learn more about what minimum essential coverage is?

If you do not have an exemption, you only pay 1/12th of the penalty for each month you don't have coverage. Please note that some penalties are subject to a maximum amount.

2015	2% of your yearly household Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) above the amount at which you're required to file taxes, or $325 per person ($162.50/child) – whichever is greater.
2016	2.5% of your yearly household Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) above the amount at which you're required to file taxes or $695 per person ($347.50/child) – whichever is greater.

26. I did not have health coverage for a month or more in 2015. Where can I apply for an exemption from the tax penalty?

For some exemptions, such as the exemption for a short gap in health coverage, you will only need to fill in a code when you file taxes. See IRS Form 8965, Health Coverage Exemptions. Other exemptions require you to apply by filling out one of the exemption forms available at www.healthcare.gov.

IRS Exemptions: <https://www.healthcare.gov/health-coverage-exemptions/exemptions-from-the-fee/>

27. If I am enrolled in a Medi-Cal program that does not count as full health coverage, do I have to pay a tax penalty?

There are many exemptions from the tax penalty. Some examples include: exemptions for people with very low income, exemptions for people in limited Medi-Cal programs such as share of cost, exemptions for undocumented immigrants who do not qualify for assistance, and more. You should consult with a tax professional to see if you qualify. You can also visit the following IRS webpage for information about all of the exemptions.

Depending on how the information was changed, you may need to amend your taxes. The United States Department of Treasury intends to provide additional information to help tax filers determine whether they would benefit from filing amended returns. You also may want to consult with your tax preparers to determine if you would benefit from amending.

30. Can I report to the IRS that I got health coverage before I get my Form 1095-B from Medi-Cal?

Yes, you may self-attest your coverage while filing their taxes before getting Form 1095-B. Please note that the IRS may require some people to show proof for their coverage and due to this, DHCS strongly suggests you keep your Form 1095-B for your records.

31. What if I never got an IRS Form 1095-B but I filed my federal income taxes anyway without the information from the form?

The IRS determined that consumers with government sponsored coverage may file their taxes without Form 1095-B and self-attest their coverage. You should get an IRS Form

32. If I do not regularly file taxes, is there a benefit to filing taxes this year?

Even if you are not required to file taxes, you may have federal or state tax credits available for low to moderate income level people. One of these incentives is called the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and is now available for both federal and California state taxes. Follow the links below to see if you qualify for these credits.

Federal: <https://www.irs.gov/Credits-&-Deductions/Individuals/Earned-Income-Tax-Credit>
State: <https://www.ftb.ca.gov/individuals/faq/net/900.shtml>

Also, if you or someone in your household qualifies for premium tax credits through Covered California (or through healthcare.gov or another state marketplace if you lived outside of California for any part of the tax year) you are required to file taxes.

When someone receives a premium tax credit and does not file taxes, Covered California will not continue to provide financial assistance in paying for their coverage.

33. What do I do if a member of my family has passed away in regards to Form 1095-B?

In the event that a consumer received MEC in the given tax year, but has passed away, an IRS Tax Form 1095-B will still be sent to the last known address on file. If the responsible person did not obtain Form 1095-B for the deceased, with the appropriate documentation, they can go to the responsible county for the deceased and request a reprint of Form 1095-B. A forwarding address may be given if the Form 1095-B needs to be sent to a different address.

34. Are there any special considerations for my foster child in regards to Form 1095-B?

Yes. If you are a foster parent, adoptive parent, or legal guardian that claims the child as a dependent on your tax return for the given tax year, you are liable for the shared responsibility payment. Parents who cannot claim the child as a dependent are not liable for the months they were responsible for the child.

If the adoption or placement of the child occurs during the given tax year, you are only liable for the month following the adoption or placement through the end of the tax year.

Foster care or adoptive parents and children fall under the same rules regarding MEC and the individual mandate. If a foster parent, adoptive parent, or legal guardian has not received Form 1095-B for their child, they may request a reprint through an eligibility worker at their county human services agency.

Please remember that all former foster youth, up to the age of 26, are eligible for free Medi-Cal and that former foster youth will always have minimum essential coverage.

35. Are there any special considerations regarding Form 1095-B if I am a parent of a child who has entered foster care?

Parents who had their child or children enter foster care may have not received Form 1095-B on behalf of their child or children. Until further guidance is received from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, DHCS will not issue or provide reprints of Form 1095 B to these parents.
